

Draft agenda

Day 1: 09:00 – 17:00

Morning

- Arrival & registration
- Introductory remarks
 - UNESCO (Stefania Giannini)
 - ANGEL (Massimiliano Tarozzi)
 - GENE (Liam Wegimont)
- Keynote presentation: Research as a political act. Arjun Appadurai (New York University/Bard Graduate Center)
- Keynote presentation: The Futures of Education initiative (TBC). Sobhi Tawil (UNESCO)
- Keynote presentation: Global Education Digest digital archive. Massimiliano Tarozzi (University Bologna)

Afternoon

- Parallel sessions: Paper presentations.
- ANGEL business meeting

Day 2: 09:00 – 15:40

Morning

Special sessions

- ANGEL Early Career Researcher session
- Session developed and led by UNESCO
- Global Education Network Europe: Implications of the European Declaration on Global Education to 2050
- Global Education Network Europe: Better Evaluation in Global Education - Moving policy and practice forward
- Global Citizenship Education and Sustainability: Engaging the Earth Charter and Value-Creating Perspectives
- Reimagining education for a sustainable world – dialogues with non-Western & multispecies perspectives
- Global partnerships to accelerate action for the SDGs – Research and Teaching Good Practices from Higher Education

- Embedding and sustaining global education and learning agendas at system and school level: a cross country comparative
- Climate change communication and education country profiles: A tool to foster PEER learning and policy dialogue on CCE through improved data

Afternoon

- Keynote presentation: Nurturing values of sustainability and global citizenship through education with the Earth Charter: A contribution to building a better world. Mirian Vilela (Earth Charter International)
- Keynote presentation: Fools rush in where ANGELS fear to tread: On the moral responsibility of educators and researchers in the Anthropocene. Arjen Wals (Wageningen University)
- Closing panel discussion
- Conference close: Doug Bourn (IOE, UCL's Faculty of Education & Society)